Herrick and Gordon Hard at Work

Campi or Coulon May Fight Here

JOE HERRICK, the Keweenaw welterweight, seems to have on training. Realizing that Gordon is one of the toughest and hardest men to hit that has appeared in the Juarez arena this season, Herrick is aware of the job before him, but is confident of the outcome of the battle. His two-handed work and opportunist ducking, coupled with his speedy jab and cross, are a combination that distinguish the top-notch boxer.

Four fast rounds were boxed Tuesday afternoon with Billy Shannon, two cantos with Battling Mantell. Bart Gordon is working hard and steadily at the Stanton camp and will round into excellent condition before the bout on Labor day. Gordon's ability to assimilate all the punishment handed out to him is probably what compiled his string of victories before he invaded the southwest. Bob York, the El Paso middleweight, is working with the Oklahoma boys, and being the same size and weight, is an excellent sparring partner. The elongated Jack Dean is also sparring with Gordon in a clean fighter and created a favorable impression in his first contest in Juarez. Four rounds with York, with some rope skipping and shadow boxing interspersed, wound up his program for Tuesday.

A hitch in the negotiations for the Frankie Gage-Battling Mantell fight occurred Tuesday afternoon, when the boxer refused to participate in a show on September 4, asking for a purse of 50 percent of the gate receipts, while the promoters offered 45. Articles will probably be signed for the match in a few days.

Gage received an offer from George Memic, acting promoter of the Phoenix Athletic club, Tuesday, for a match with Pete Daly in that city on September 5. Dave Clark, manager of Mantell, also received an offer and inducements from New Orleans for a bout there with Frankie Russell.

As a setting for a bantam championship bout, the Juarez arena is the stage, according to Eddie Mowry, a promoter from Albuquerque, N. M. Mowry wired S. G. Gonzalez, who has the concession on the Juarez arena, asking his terms for a lease on a September date for a match to be staged between Eddie Campi and Benny Chavez or Johnny Coulon. Unless Chavez is defeated in his bout with Frankie Burns at Denver, Friday, the match in Juarez will probably materialize.

Bob York, who will meet Kid Patrick at Silver City on September 17, is working daily with Bart Gordon. York, a brother of Rio Pajo, bantam champion of El Paso, is scheduled for two bouts, to be staged at the Hilltop in the near future. Pajo received a telegram from the promoters of the New Orleans A. C. Tuesday, offering him a match with Kid Herman, of that city. Pajo asked the promoter for his terms, and is doing light work in the meantime.

Jack Herrick, the Keweenaw middleweight, arrived Tuesday and will train Joe in his bout with Gordon. Shortly after he knocked out Jack Carroll, Herrick left for Keweenaw to visit his home. Jack will not participate in any more bouts until November, according to Joe, who handles the managerial end of the combination.

BLOW BY WILLARD CAUSE OF YOUNG'S DEATH, SAYS JURY

Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 27.—The death of John (Bull) Young was caused "unintentionally by Jess Willard," according to the verdict of a coroner's jury. The death was caused, the verdict reads, by concussion of the brain by a blow on the chin delivered by Jess Willard.

The prosecution declared that the verdict would not alter the manslaughter charges against Willard and 11 others as a result of the fatal fight last week at Vernon. It is announced tonight that there can be "nothing doing" at Vernon until the last of September at the earliest. Dundee and Harry Carter are on their way to New York. Leach Cross and his brother left last night on their way east. Johnny O'Leary went to San Francisco.

PHOENIX TEAMS LOSE

Phoenix, Ariz., Aug. 27.—In the poorest and most ragged games played since the Salt River Valley league was organized, both Phoenix teams were defeated. At Phoenix, Tempe won from the Maroons 11 to 2. Phoenix lost to Mesa, on the Mesa grounds, 6 to 4.

Barry to Bolster the Athletics

Jack Barry, the sterling shortstop of that "100,000 infield" of the Philadelphia Athletics, whose absence from the game on account of a lame shoulder during the last 18 days shattered the defensive play of the inner works. Barry joined the team on the western trip.

while the Giants would be slumping terribly to only break even from now to the wire.

Conse Mack's crew has about as good a chance to pull through to the wire some distance ahead of the field. The Athletics have 36 battles to fight before the world's series and are nine games ahead of the Naps.

Eddie Plank, one of the mainstays of the Athletics' slab outfit, has slumped, and it is doubtful if he will be of much service to the club before the big series in October. However, the other hurlers are doing well enough to assure an even break, which is about all that is necessary now for Mack's crew to win out.

The Giants are in the best shape of the two leading teams, as far as pitchers are concerned. They have Tseareu, Marquard, Fromme, Mathewson and Demaree doing excellent work. A great array of slab material.
